DETAILS

The FBI and local law enforcement are investigating a crime which occurred in Omaha, Nebraska. During the evening of March 13, 2008, 11-year-old Thomas Hunter and the family's housekeeper, Shirlee Sherman, were found deceased in the Hunter's home.

Through investigation, it was determined that a suspicious male with a dark or olive complexion, approximately late 20s to late 30s, average to stocky build, 5'8" to 5'10", and short- to medium-length dark hair was seen walking in the area prior to the reported homicides. This suspect may have exited an SUV similar to the one displayed below.

In addition, the suspect was wearing a dark suit with a white shirt and was carrying a dark-colored satchel or briefcase over his shoulder. Law enforcement authorities would like to question this person who was seen in the Hunter's neighborhood. It was also reported that a gray or silver Honda CR-V (or similar SUV) with no front license plate was seen in the area around the time of the homicides.

If you have any information concerning this person, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
